Consumption Cured. THE JUDGE OF HANOVER

tim. Howard suffered for three years with lung and throat troubles, and last spring was thought by his neighbors to bying. I heard of his condition and gave him A. B. C. Tonic. Its effect was magical. In a very short time he was able to leave his bed, and now regards hin-self a well man. Others in this vicinity have taken the "Tonic" with pronounced benefit.

Letter from Rappahannock

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazatte.] WOODVILLE, Rappehannock county, Ve., Nov. 25th, 1890 .- Our Circuit Court, which has just adjourned, was presided over by Judge Grimsley, Judge Keith naving been unavoidably absent. There was but little pu-inces and court was only in session for

Out of the same about finishing housing their or their or corp, and the yield is a good one and has been havested in fine condition. The price is but 40 cents per bushel and no demand here, and there being but few cattle, compared with former years, our farmers will have to keep the most of their orn till prices get beiter.

The general and complete victory of the democratic party is appreciated in this couns and has inspired as with great hopes for he future, and although there has always been a good majority here it is believed that this majority will be increased at coming elections. The general movement along the line of the Shenardesh railroad and the booming of the mony towns in that splandid country has induced many of our oil zans to contem-plate moving to some of the many givening towns there. Some of our young man have already gone and others will go, having caught the spirit of enterprise that is now moving through the Vailey of Virginia, and wherever they settle will do their part in helping on the new era which awaits our good old State. Though business has slackened and possibly may continue so during the winter, yet the coming spring will find most, if not sit, these towns which have caught the spirit of improvement, going forward with sure and quick energy.

Among these points which have organ zed and companies and sold lots at public sale, future than our neighboring town of Lurar, in Page county. It has bad the most general sdvertising of any, and its wonderful caverns are known throughout this and other countries. Its surroundings are all that nature can do to make it a suttable and fit point for a large and business community. The neighboring mountains are full of the best and richest of minerals and metals that nature can give, and nothing remains to be done but for its people to take advantage of what they have and act with energy and decision. The same may be said of other places along this beautiful valley which ately have started forward, save that Lu ray, and Luray alone, has and can have its wonderful caveran and his becuriful inc. There will be great things done in our good old State in the coming spring, and it seems at lest that a new era is dawning for us-the long wished for day of our awakening to s practical application of our many and varied resources. Lursy has already done well, but it will do better and greater things both for itself and the State when the spring opens and the weather permits. Should it get the road contemplated to be built by the N. & W. to Washington from some point along the Shenandcah Valley, Luray will have all it wishes and all it wants, and there will spring up a city around it that will be s joy and s pride to its people.

A Strange Suicide.

A remarkable suicide occurred near Raleigh, N. C, this week, arising from the affaction of a man for a boy in nowise related to him. Four years ago J T. Bolling was in the city and saw on the streets a lad named Ed Lynn, of that county. Boiling had, two years before, lost a little son, and when he saw this boy he was attracted to him by the remarkable resemblance he bore to his less child. Balling learned the boy's name and place of residence and at once went to the vicinity and set up a school, that he might have the lad for a pupit. He kept the boy by his side nearly all the time, took him off on pleasure irips, etc., always ray-ing his expenses - just for the pleasure of having the child with him His affection having the child with him. He sheeten grew so strong and was at marked that Maj. Lyan began to feat that Bolling would at-tempt to steal the boy away from him. He therefore forbade all association and communication between the two. Bolting then quit his school and went to peddling, haping by this means to be able to see the boy sionally. He was not successful in this, and on Wednesday morning he took five grains of morphine and then shot himself through the head with a pistel. Bolling left a long letter addressed to the boy telling all these facts and stating that life was unbearable to him without the boy's company and associ-He left what little property he had to the lad to whom he was so strongly at-tached. Balling had a wife and a daughter in another country, but had not lived with hie wife for some years

MEDICINAL.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipation, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.
